

REVITALIZING

SIU CARBONDALE

Chancellor Carlo Montemagno
Presented to the Board of Trustees
December 13, 2017

New Freshman Enrollment

New Freshman Enrollment

Access and opportunity 71%

Innovation in research and creativity 81%

Outstanding teaching 84%

Nationally ranked public research university 72%

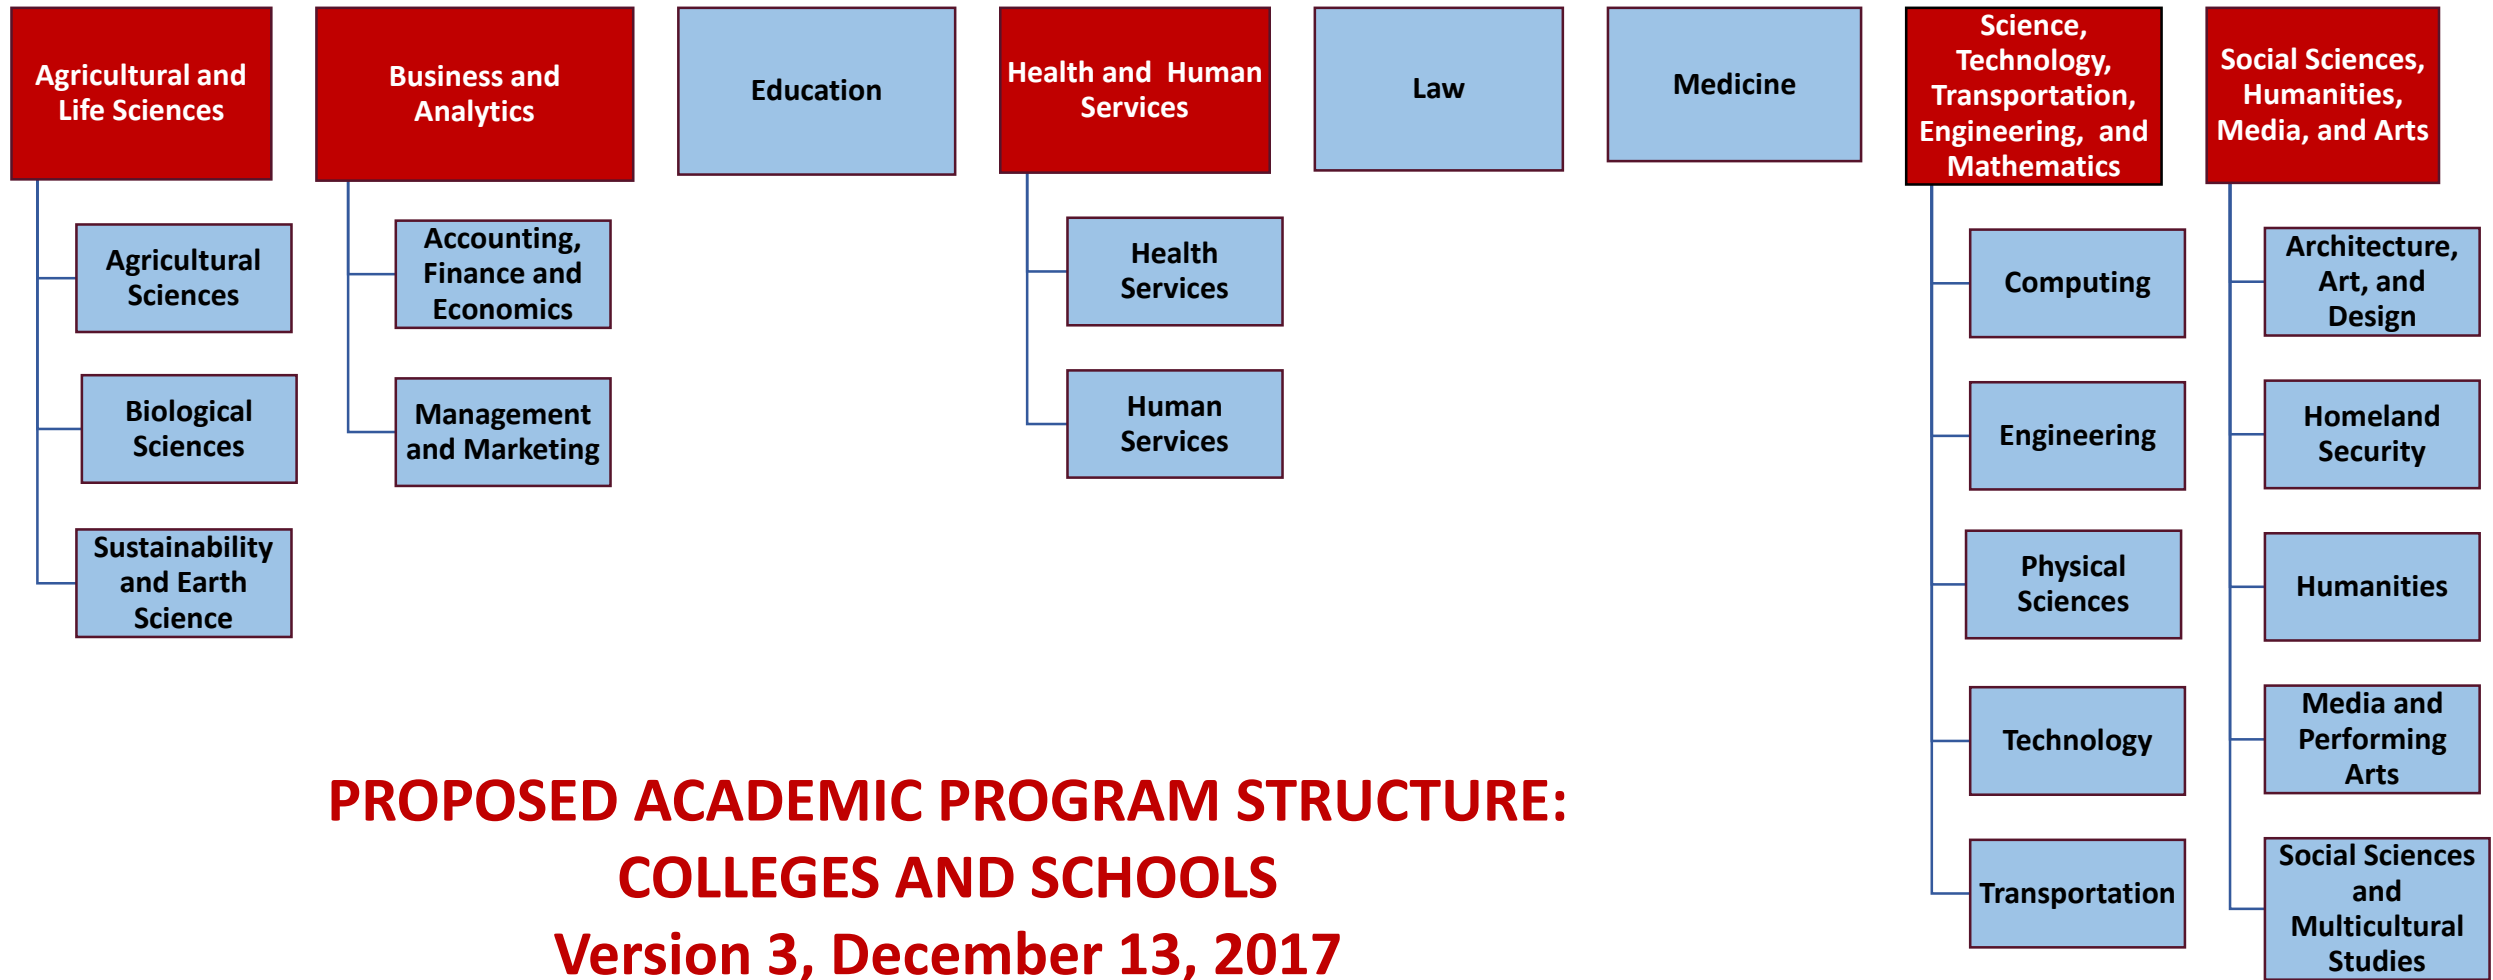

Regional economic catalyst 79%

Shape future leaders 81%

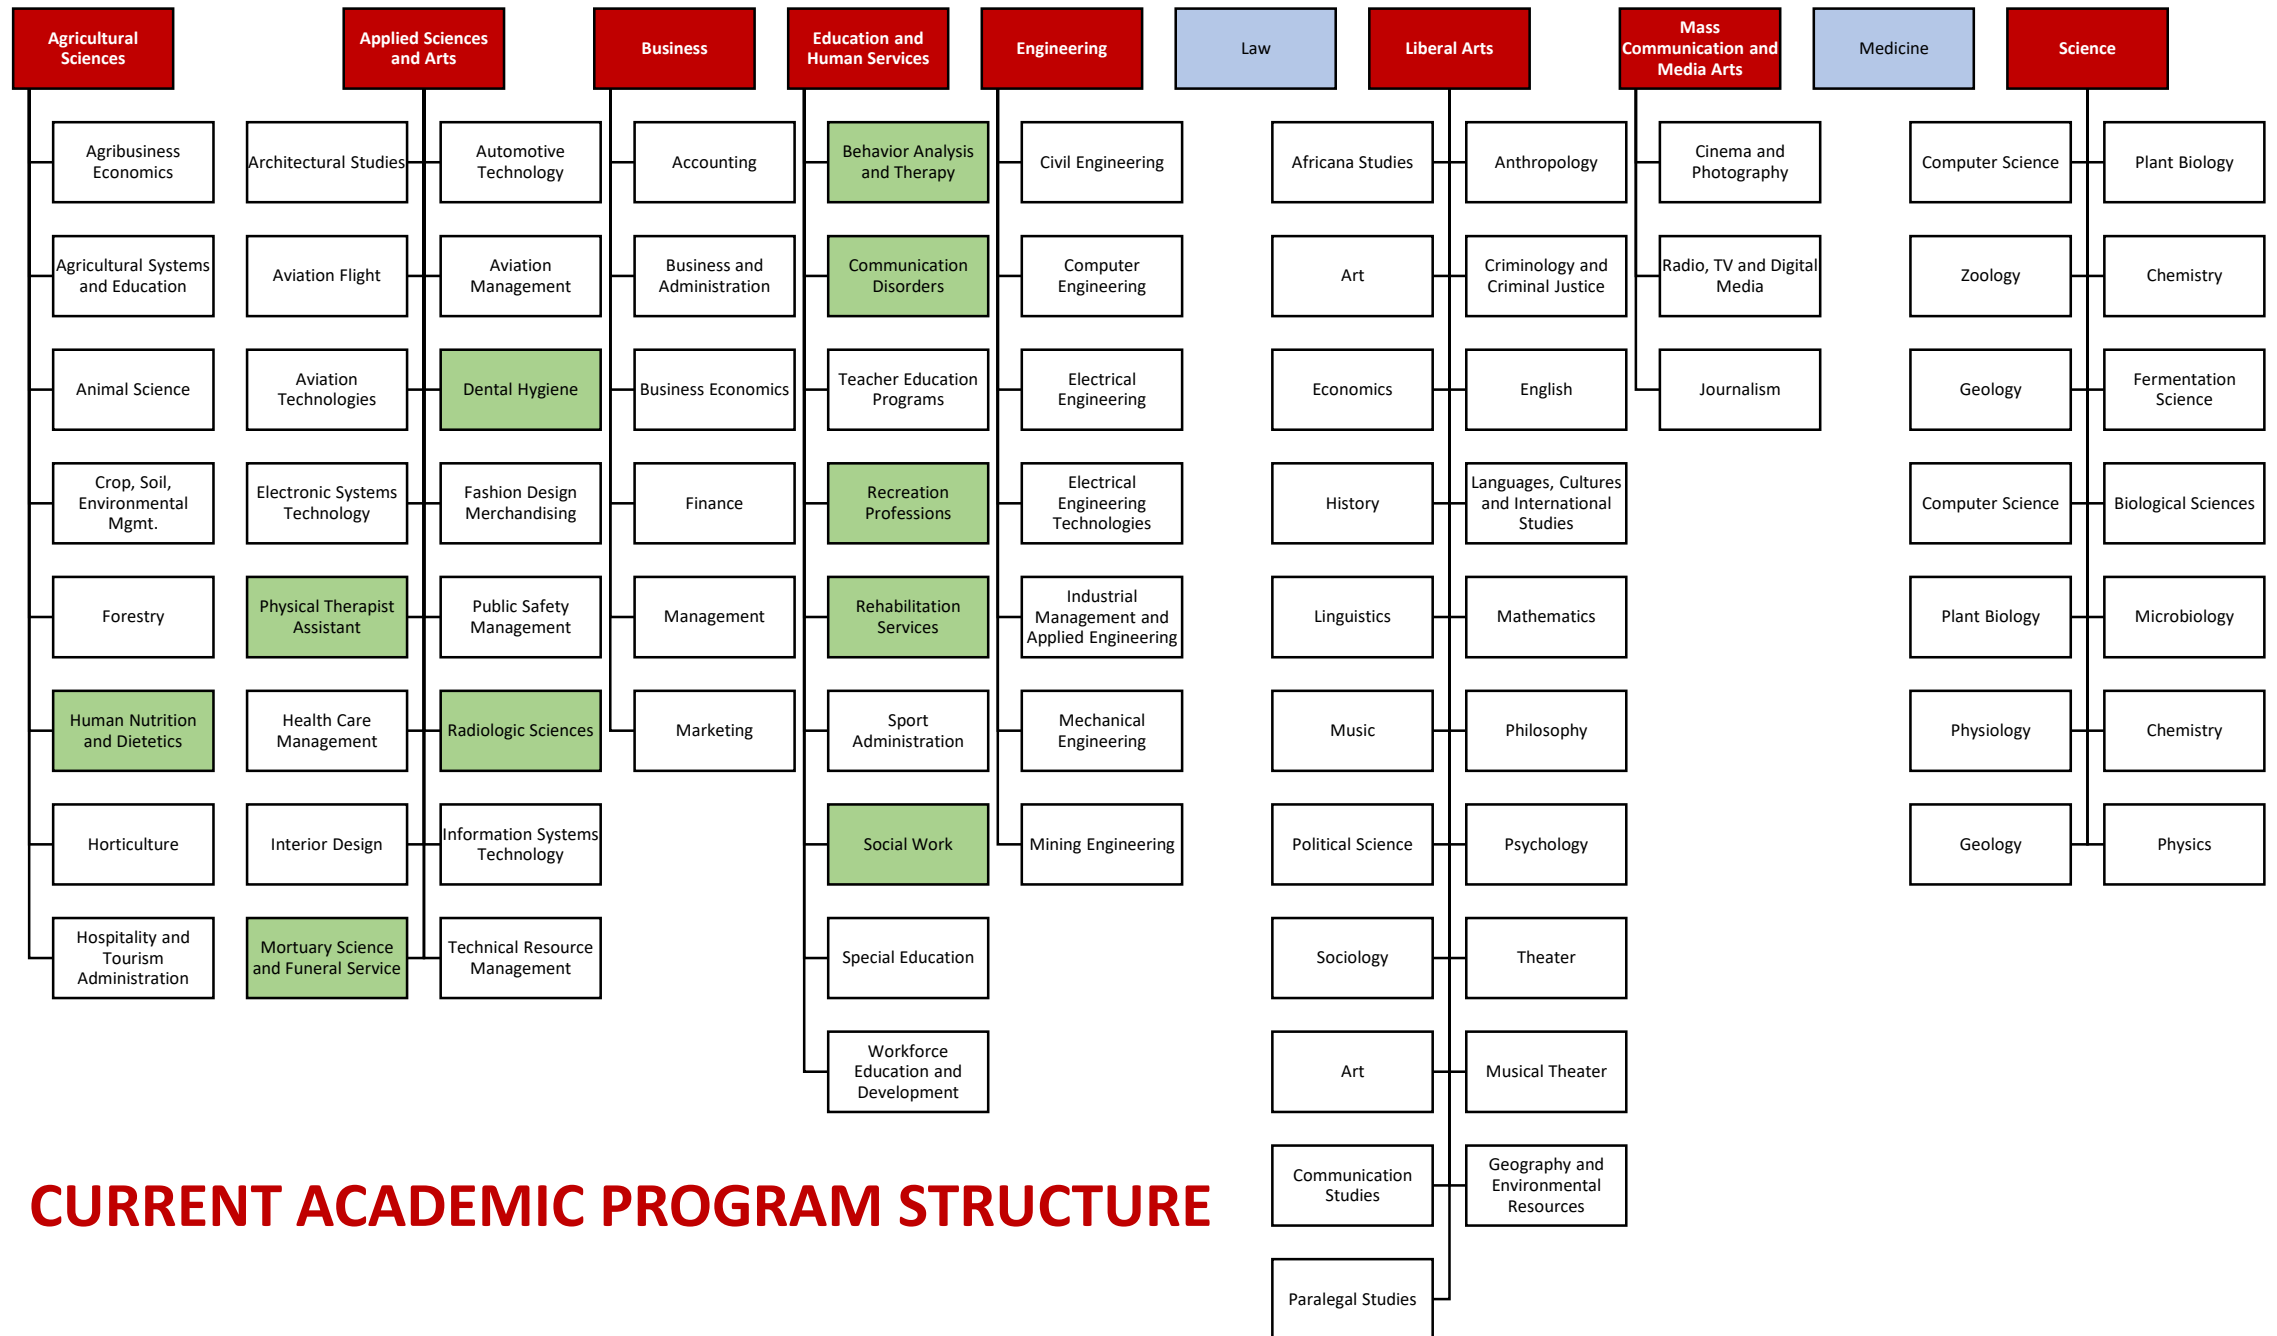

Transform lives 72%

DISTINGUISH OURSELVES AS A NATIONAL RESEARCH UNIVERSITY

Opportunities for success for all students
Distinctive, world-class educational experience
Complete, vibrant student experience
R1 status: Research that matters
Outward-facing

COLLEGE OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

New program in yellow

PROPOSED NEW PROGRAMS

- Cybersecurity
- Bioinformatics
- Natural language processing
- Ecology
- Neurosciences
- Biochemistry and molecular biology
- Forensics
- Chemical and biochemical engineering
- Material science
- Robotics and automation
- Gerontology and rural health
- Landscape architecture
- Fisheries and wildlife management

8 colleges → 5 colleges

42 departments → 19 schools

What defines
an
SIU graduate?

R2: Doctoral University Higher Research Activity

R1: Doctoral University Highest Research Activity

Nationally ranked public research university

Outstanding academic experience

Innovation in research and creativity

Shape future, culturally competent leaders and transform lives

THANK YOU

- $1 million for graduate fellowships in the arts: Jimmy Wright, '71
- $1 million for business scholarships for Southern Illinois students: Lynn McPheeters, '64
- $1 million for university initiatives: Anonymous donor
- $500,000 for endowed chemistry scholarships: announcement pending
- $1.3 million for journalism, Morris Library and athletics: Tilden Parks, '76

QUESTIONS